10:00:15 From Dorothy Taft : 4 key elements: ensuring retention; focus on placement; working with more vulnerable (requires higher investment); relationships are critical

10:00:53 From Dorothy Taft : AMEN!

10:05:52 From Leila Garbouj to All panelists : Thanks, I have to leave.

10:08:46 From KMugeny : Kevin Mugeny with World Vision Iraq, to any of the panelist has any of the organizations partnered with faith leaders like sheikhs or Christian faith leaders to help address barriers towards access to psychological support related to religious believes or the stigmatization of seeking mental health support? if none, any recommendations on studies done along this lines?

10:08:53 From MetteK to All panelists : What is involved in training your staff to provide psycho-social services? Many low income countries, there is a lack of trained social workers, psychologists, etc. We talk a lot about making referrals, but what if there are no services to refer to? Has anyone ever done mobile therapy sessions? What about support groups for caregivers of traumatized/struggling persons?

10:10:17 From Elon Gilbert to All panelists : Is circular or long term migration a feature of any of these situations and if so are there dimensions of the training that focus on being successful in this migration?
